EXTRA TIME GRANTED.

Mrs. Amelia W. P. Conrow to Answer Suit Monday.

Counsel for Mrs. Amelia W. P. Conrow, who is fighting the proceedings in habeas corpus by which her husband, Robert W. Conrow of New York seeks to gain possession of their two children, Amelie and Willard, was granted time to complete an answer to the husband's petition yesterday by Chief Justice McCoy. The case will be called again Monday, but the question of what Judge will hear the controversy has not been determined.

The writ had been issued by Justice Hitz, but, considering the matter belongs to one of the law judges, he sent the case to Chief Justice McCoy. The chief justice was too busy to hear the case, but stated that he would arrange with some other justice to take up the matter.

KIWANIS TO BE SANTA.

Inaugurate "Pack Movement" for Children's Toys.

Inaugurating a Santa Claus pack movement, to provide the poor children of Washington with toys for Christmas, the Kiwanis Club met yesterday at the Washington Hotel.

E. D. Shaw was elected chairman of the special committee appointed to look after the collection of toys. All wives of members have been invited by the club to attend next Thursday's meeting, and Mrs. Harry Hahn has been placed in charge of the wrapping and distribution committee.

PRESIDENT'S GARRISON MAKES HARDING MEMBER Committee Named to Call on Him at White House to Arrange for Oath.

President-elect Warren G. Harding was elected an active member of the President's Own Garrison, No. 104, Army and Navy Union, U. S. A., at the muster of the garrison in G. A. R. Hall last night. This organization takes its name from the fact that three former Presidents, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft, were active members of the garrison. It is made up of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines and active men in all branches of the Army and Navy.

This committee was named by Commander Thomas Harris to notify President-elect Harding of his election. E. C. R. Humphries, Past Commander H. M. Knight, National Inspector General William L. Hull, National Aid man T. J. Judd, National Aid man W. L. Peak, Past Commander Paul Schneider, T. H. Harris, Senior Vice Commander Mrs. Clare Madert, Comrade Robert I. Miller and Capt. Albert J. Headley. They will call on President Harding after his inauguration, and arrange for him to take the obligation in the White House.

These officers were elected for the coming calendar year: Commander, Capt. C. O. Howard; senior vice commander, James E. Mitchell; junior vice commander, Stephen F. Tilman; paymaster, H. M. Knight; quartermaster, H. E. Madert; officer of the day, W. S. Sims; officer of the guard, W. J. Drury; officer of the watch, H. G. Hobbs; chaplain, H. D. Prell. Executive council: W. L. Peak, G. T.

Judd, Miss Caroline Peterson, Miss Mary E. Naylor and John W. Jenkins. Counsel: Robert I. Miller.
